

Code of Professional Conduct

everything you need to know

Code of Professional Conduct

Statement of Purpose

The Code of Professional Conduct makes explicit the standards of ethical and professional behaviour expected of Yoga Australia Professionals by their peers and the community. This code is a practical application of Yoga Australia's Statement of Ethics. It offers guidance to Yoga Professionals in their role of supporting students/clients in their practice of yoga. This Code applies to all members of Yoga Australia. The Code also informs yoga students and the community of the level of professional behaviour required of Yoga Australia member

1. Teacher-Student Relationship

A good teacher – student relationship requires the teacher to have high standards of professional conduct. Yoga teachers need to respect the rights and dignity of all students. They also need to respect the trust placed in the teacher by the student. The following codes emphasise trust and safety as the basis for the teacher – student relationship. (Please note, here the word 'student' includes those attending yoga classes, teacher trainees and those being mentored.)

1.1 Respect and Rights

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

1.1.1 Demonstrate respect to all students/clients regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, physical and psychological limitation, sexual orientation or religious affiliation

1.1.2 Respect the values, beliefs and aspirations of all yoga students/clients

1.2 Confidentiality

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

- 1.2.1 Protect students/clients' privacy and right to confidentiality
- 1.2.2 Treat all information about students/clients as confidential
- 1.2.3 Obtain consent from students/clients before photographing, audio or video tape recording or permitting third party observation of yoga sessions.
- 1.2.4 Ask students'/clients permission before adding their names to print or email mailing lists and be clear about the content of mail-outs. Respect also the students'/clients right to opt out of the mailing list.

1.3 Effective Communication

Relationships based on trust and clear communication enable Yoga Professionals to work effectively with their students/clients.

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

- 1.3.1 Communicate with students/clients in a courteous, respectful, compassionate and honest manner
- 1.3.2 Communicate respect for students/

clients through actions, language and behaviour

- 1.3.3 Listen to students/clients needs, concerns, and preferences.
- 1.3.4 Communicate clearly about ways to practise yoga safely.
- 1.3.5 Seek permission before, and be respectful when, physically adjusting a student/client
- 1.3.6 Make comments about a student's/clients practice that are constructive and positive, not denigrating

1.4 Safety

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

- 1.4.1 Maintain a safe, clean and comfortable environment for the teaching and practice of yoga
- 1.4.2 Maintain safety procedures for yoga equipment.
- 1.4.3 Support the safety of students/clients in the teaching of yoga
- 1.4.4 Adhere to relevant legislative requirements relating to safety and care including Occupational Health and Safety and Duty of Care requirements
- 1.4.5 Maintain public liability and professional indemnity insurance requirements
- 1.4.6 Maintain current first aid training qualification and competency

1.5 Professional Boundaries

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

- 1.5.1 Be considerate of the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual needs of students/clients
- 1.5.2 Be considerate of the preferences and limitations of students/clients
- 1.5.3 Maintain appropriate professional boundaries
- 1.5.4 Recognise the power-imbalance between Yoga Professional and student/client and not harass or exploit students/clients physically, psychologically, emotionally, sexually or financially
- 1.5.5 Declare and take appropriate steps to address any conflict of interest that may arise in dealings with students/clients
- 1.5.6 Avoid relationships that could compromise the integrity of the professional-student/client relationship

1.6 Grievances

Yoga Australia teachers will:

- 1.6.1 Acknowledge the student's/clients right to make a complaint.
- 1.6.2 Take all necessary actions to resolve any complaints or grievances as outlined in the Yoga Australia Grievance Policy.

2. Relationship with Peers

These Codes outline a professional approach to working with other yoga teachers and relevant professionals.

Yoga Australia professionals will:

- 2.1 Speak respectfully of other yoga traditions and health modalities
- 2.2 Treat other yoga professionals and colleagues in a respectful manner
- 2.3 When appropriate, refer to and work cooperatively with

- other yoga professionals and relevant health practitioners, to meet the needs of the student/client
- 2.4 Consult and take advice from colleagues and mentors, when appropriate

3. Professional Practice

These Codes relate to maintaining the professionalism in yoga teaching/practice as expected by peers, students and the community.

3.1 Professional Performance

Yoga Australia Professionals will:

- 3.1.1 Maintain the currency of their professional skills and knowledge, in accordance with Yoga Australia's Guidelines
- 3.1.2 Acknowledge and practice yoga within the scope of their skills, knowledge and ability
- 3.1.3 Maintain their own regular yoga practice
- 3.1.4 Commit to ongoing professional development in accordance with Yoga Australia's CPD guidelines
- 3.1.5 Agree to cooperate fully with any Yoga Australia enquiry in relation to behaviour and responsibilities as a member
- 3.1.6 Abide by all Yoga Australia policies and procedures

3.2 Integrity in Teaching

Yoga teachers will:

- 3.2.1 In all professional matters, act in a manner which honours the profession
- 3.2.2 Honestly, accurately and fairly represent the benefits and outcomes of yoga practice
- 3.2.3 Respect copyright and acknowledge sources when drawing on the work of others

3.3 Business Integrity

Yoga Professionals will:

- 3.3.1 Abide by all relevant business and legislative requirements, including, but not limited to, insurance, work cover, pay and conditions, taxation, accounting, marketing and advertising, and copyright
- 3.3.2 Ensure all information relating to the benefits of yoga and information used for promotional and marketing purposes is accurate, fair, clearly stated and not misleading in any way
- 3.3.3 Treat all employees, the community, students, colleagues and other yoga businesses fairly, transparently and honestly